

One-third high school students work part time

The War Manpower commission, through the County Superintendent of Schools has requested a report from Arlington Heights high school regarding the number and amount of student employment. The Cook County School Advisory Defense Council approved the survey in order to study the effect of student employment on the schools and the school programs. The student replies to the survey will also be used by Mr. Grose, assistant principal and guidance officer, in reviewing student failures at school as related to outside work activities.

The number of students working part-time at present total 198 in outside employment, plus 40 students working on the family farm, or a grand total of 238 students, representing 1/3 of the student body. Those employed are divided by classes and sex as follows:

Class	Boys	Girls
Fresh	12	12
Soph	28	20
Juniors	32	29
Seniors	16	32

The time employed questions show the following results:

After school only	13
Finishing after 8:00 p. m.	32
Regular night shift	7
Saturday only	49
After school and Saturday	97

Average hours employed per week are as follows:

Less than 10 hours	62
10 to 20 hours per week	69
20 to 28 hours per week	35
Over 28 hours per week	32

Places of employment show the following summary:

Stores: Offices 7; other work 74.
Factory: Office 5; other work 41.
Newspaper delivery, 7.
Domestic employment 38.
Recreation centers 26.

Using an average value for the amount of hours worked by part-time student workers shows that roughly 3,300 student work hours are being contributed to the merchants and business men of the community each week. No questions were asked as to the amount of money earned per week, but if an average rate is applied to the number of hours worked, it is evident that a large sum of money is now being received by young people who should have some parental advice regarding its use.

The survey also shows that during the past summer, 68 students were employed on farms and 228 students were employed in industry. This total of 296 students represents almost one-half of the student body. With this high percentage of student participation in outside work activities, Principal Conger predicts a higher failure rate unless parents watch their children and insist on regular sleep and good health habits.

BOTH SONS NOW OUT OF THE COUNTRY

Mayor Goedke has received word that his second son has left the United States. He knows that Robert is in Italy, where he has been keeping abreast of the battle fronts. The other son, Richard, is supposedly on his way to Greenland.

Moehling in ceremony at Chicago 4-H meeting

A 4-H club leader from Cook county, Mr. Henry Moehling of Palatine, represented the 4-H club leaders of America in a ceremony presented during the 1943 National 4-H club Congress at the Sunday Evening club in Orchestra hall in Chicago on November 28, according to Charles N. Glover, assistant farm adviser.

All of the nearly 800 National 4-H club Congress delegates were guests at this meeting. The ceremony presented was arranged and directed by Mr. W. McNeel, assistant state 4-H club leader in Wisconsin. It very clearly presented the 4-H club program and its activities.

Cook county parent also on program

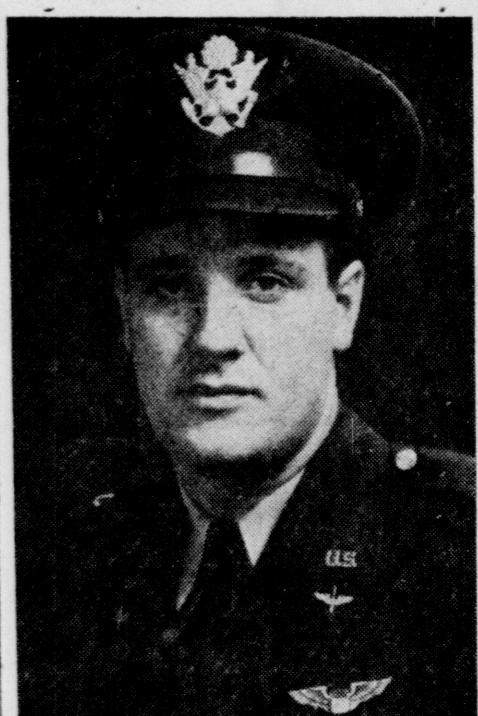

Mrs. Walter Martin of LaGrange, who has two children in 4-H club work and has been quite active in its support, appeared representing the parents of 4-H club members in America.

Others appearing in the ceremony were K. A. Turner, representing the Extension Service from Washington, 4-H club members from all sections of the country representing the various projects carried, as well as former 4-H club members now serving in the armed forces.

Mrs. Martin and Mr. Moehling were both selected to participate on this program because of their interest and active participation in the 4-H club program.

A transcription will be broadcast next Sunday morning at 8:30 a. m., Station WAAF, 950 Kilgore.

Loses life

CAPTAIN MILLIGAN, Arlington Heights, who was killed in a plane crash Thanksgiving Day.

Paper collection brings 10 tons

Arlington Heights Boy Scouts and the Cubs combined to make the drive for waste paper on the north side of town a big success. About ten tons of paper have been collected. The Scouts, the Cubs and the OCD appreciate the cooperation and generosity of the residents.

Those who have paper to be collected can assist if they will perform two simple operations. First, securely tie the papers in bundles weighing between twenty-five and thirty-five pounds. Second, put the bundles on the curb. By so doing, you will not only help the Scouts and Cubs, but you will be assisting in the war effort. Waste paper is urgently needed and the more efficiently it can be picked up, the sooner it will be used. If you find that you cannot get it to the curb, the Scouts and Cubs will carry it out for you.

On Saturday, December 4, the territory east of Dunton st. and south of the railroad tracks will be covered. The Scouts and Cubs will meet at the Arlington Chevrolet Co. at 8:30 Saturday morning to start the collection. Do your part by having your papers ready.

Water Softener firm get additional space

Soft Water Service, opposite the Arlington Theatre has rented an additional store in the Willie building and hopes soon to be able to serve some of the public who have been on the waiting list for some time. The new store will be used for the business office and for storage purposes. The original store space will be used exclusively for plant service.

Manager Chmelik has a few headaches these days. On one side are the people who are asking for soft water that he is unable to place in service. On the other side is the man power shortage. His third problem additional equipment is being partly solved by the additional space and purchase of a truck chassis, but there is still a truck body needed. Among those who are waiting for soft water service is the navy air field south of Arlington.

4,000 gallons of gas leak from truck, trailer

The Barrington fire department was called out at 3:00 o'clock one morning last week to the Standard gasoline storage plant on Applebee st., Barrington, to take care of 4,000 gallons of regular gasoline which was pouring on the street after a shut-off valve had been pulled off the trailer tank of a truck-trailer unit unloading the fuel to the bulk storage tanks.

The truck tank, holding 4,000 gallons, had been unloaded, and the trailer tank, which also holds 4,000 gallons, was made ready for unloading. The hose had been connected between the trailer tank and the bulk storage tank. In order to put more slack in the hose, it was said, the truck driver pulled up. As the trailer moved ahead, according to the explanation, the chain which holds the cap that goes over the shut-off valve opening and the cap itself caught under the trailer wheel. The chain being attached to the shut-off valve the latter was pulled off the tank by the moving wheel.

The gasoline flowed into a catch-basin of the village storm sewer and out into Flynn creek. It was the only means of disposal available to the firemen. As a precautionary measure the sewage disposal plant and other parties were notified at once that gasoline was flowing into the storm sewer. Many complaints of gas leaks were turned in to Public Service and the village during the day.

The lost gasoline represents a value of 800 coupons at five gallons to the coupon.

Capt. Milligan killed in flight collision

Buried in National cemetery at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

Captain Douglas F. Milligan, 27, a flight instructor at the Liberal, Kan., Army air field, was one of eleven men killed Thanksgiving day when two B-24 Liberator bombers crashed about five miles from the field. Capt. Milligan was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Milligan, 1118 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, and the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Platt, Barrington.

The accident occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The plane in which Capt. Milligan was riding exploded after the crash and army authorities were unable to identify the bodies. All men in both planes were killed.

Mass services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the chapel at the Liberal field with burial at the Fort Leavenworth National Memorial cemetery.

Captain Milligan graduated from the Arlington Heights high school, attended Drake University for two years and graduated from the University of Illinois. He enlisted as an air cadet in September, 1940, and was called Jan. 1, 1941, receiving his training at Muskogee, Okla., Randolph and Kelly Fields, Tex., and was commissioned at the latter field Aug. 15, 1941, where he served as an instructor. He also served as instructor in air schools at Lubbock, Tex., and Altus, Okla., before being transferred to the Liberal air field.

A few days before his death Capt. Milligan had been selected to demonstrate the B-24 at an army meet at Clovis, N. Mex., early in December.

Fellow officers at the Liberal air field said he was considered one of the safest fliers and the most efficient officer at the field. Thanksgiving morning Captain Milligan had been informed by the commanding officer of the air field that he had been recommended for promotion to the rank of major and his new commission was expected daily. Captain Milligan and his family had expected to spend a 15-day furlough with his parents starting Dec. 19.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, the former Shirley Ann Platt, and an eight-month-old daughter, Kathleen; three brothers, James, William and George, and a sister, Mrs. George Pring.

Clothing greatly needed for Greek war relief

The appeal for discarded clothing that appeared in this paper last week apparently did not reach the hearts of many residents. The response was almost negligible. Thomas Kuras and Harley Unger, Arlington citizens, have given their pledge to the Greek War Relief agencies that they could expect a generous clothing response from Arlington people. "There are many residents of the community of Greek descent as well as American families," says Mr. Unger, "who have surplus clothing that may save lives of some of the Greek people who are being persecuted by Nazi reign of terror. A phone call to Arlington Heights 1394-W will bring a pickup truck to your door Saturday or Sunday."

Mar Johnson of the traveling bag has offered to accept packages that are brought to his place of business, 19 East Campbell.

The drive for clothing is national in scope and is expected to augment the giving of money that was part of the recent National War Fund drive. American people have plenty of clothing to keep them warm. The Greek people are not only starving, but also freezing to death. Will you help?

Lions enjoy great feast of turkey

The Thanksgiving dinners of the Arlington Heights Lions club are increasingly popular with the families and there was not a vacant chair or room for another chair at the Lutheran school hall last week Tuesday, the date of the annual event.

The ladies served a most delicious dinner and Lion Costain produced a most excellent program that included a professional magician and music by artists from the high school.

The program committee has secured for next Tuesday night a talk on India, in which country a number of our local boys are now located.

Rev. Stephan to move here Friday

Rev. Stephan, acting pastor of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, is bringing his family here Friday, moving to the parsonage which is being vacated by Mrs. Frickie and family. The congregation has secured a residence at the corner of Walnut and Northwest highway for the Frickie family. Word was received by Mrs. Frickie this week that her husband, who is a chaplain in the armed forces, has been transferred to Nebraska.

Many hear Red Grange at football banquet

A football banquet whose success was written in the post-dinner remarks of the more than one hundred guests in attendance Monday night at the Lutheran school has left a fond remembrance of the 1943 season for the members of the Arlington Heights varsity high school squad.

The final touch was provided by the enthusiastic parent who remarked to a member of the banquet committee afterwards: "What's the date for the 1944 affair... I want to get in my ticket bid now!"

The affair was sponsored by the athletic committee of the Dad's club, and it spotlighted as guest speaker the University of Illinois immortal football star, Harold (Red) Grange.

Greet 28 gridders

The program opened with the 28 members of the varsity football squad filing to their seats at the head table to the strains of the "Arlington Loyalty" song. The invocation was given by the Rev. John M. Kempf, whose son, Bruce, was among the varsity lettermen.

The boys pinned some vicious blocks on the fine dinner served by Mrs. Engelking, Mrs. Schwall and their associates, and then Toastmaster Grayle Howlett got the program proper underway by sketching the background for the Dad's club sponsorship of a football banquet that was planned as an annual affair.

Ned Schwartz, president of the Dad's club, Principal A. M. Conger of the high school, and John L. Grose, assistant principal and former head coach, then were introduced and commented briefly on the significance of the occasion.

Awards given

Then came Coach Armond Seidler with a short review of the season in which he said:

"It started and ended with the second Woodstock game, because then we had twenty-two boys working together... all for one and one for all."

Coach Seidler then presented the varsity letters and numeral certificates to the members of the squad, personalizing each boy to the audience in a manner that was one of the highlights of the evening. Then followed one of the most impressive and significant parts of the program—the reading of the Arlington Athletic Code which had just been adopted by the A-Club, and then the administering of the A-Club oath to the old and new members. Coach Seidler led the old members in the Oath, while the new members followed President Bob Williams of the letterman's organization.

Red Grange speaks

Climax of the evening came in the introduction of Red Grange—"still the most magic name in football," as the toastmaster presided. The Illini's famed "Galloping Ghost." For half an hour Red kept the audience in laughter over the football experiences of himself and others; now and then touching on the more serious side of sport—what it did for him, what it can mean to any boy.

The program then ended with a singing of the "Arlington Loyalty" song—a fitting climax to a memorable evening.

List players honored

Xmas savings checks distributed by State Bank

Christmas Savings checks have been mailed by Mt. Prospect State Bank to all Christmas Savings club members for 1943, amounting to over $17,000.00 to approximately 400 members.

Mr. Carl Hammerl, Cashier, is very much elated over the response to the Christmas Savings received, despite the fact that many people are also buying War Bonds and Stamps.

In the past the greater part of the savings has been used for buying essentials and War Savings Bonds.

Mount Prospect State Bank is again prepared to offer Savings club memberships for 1944 in amounts of $5.00, $20.00, $50.00 and $100.00, which can be opened now.

1944 vehicle and dog tags now on sale at municipal building

Helene Busse, acting village clerk, is now selling 1944 vehicle and dog tags. She asks their early purchase. Display a '44 city tag as soon as you display a state tag, urges Mrs. Busse. "They tell the world that the owner of the car is not delinquent in his taxes. The price of city tags for passenger autos is $3.50."

Mother says parents responsible for delinquency

Paddock Publications has received the following viewpoint of juvenile delinquency, written by a mother of two sons. Many school teachers, and law enforcement agencies will agree with her.

"Delinquency is not the fault of the adolescent. Strange as it may seem children are very fair in their dealings with life—they always return what they have received. Not what they have received from the teachings of their kindergarten to eighth grade teachers, nor from their high school teachers, but what has been given them by parents in the home.

"A small child asks for so little. All he wants is his parents' love and that so often is denied him for he wants their real love, not an artificial love that pampers and showers riches but a love that is deep and understanding—a love that will build and not destroy. When a love of this kind has been given a young child, he cannot and will not go astray for love has taught him the fulfillment of the law.

"Children nearing the adolescent age are at the turning point of life—they no longer can be fooled—they will yield to an understanding love but will rebel to an artificial love. With real love children can be guided away from temptations but without it only harm can come.

"Therefore, when the adolescent child has erred, parents should not criticize the police department, the schools, the churches, or the community, the fault lies with them. Sooner during the child's cradle days when he needed parental teaching more than at any other time in his life, the parents in their own selfish way let him down."

Arlington nurse still a prisoner in Philippines

Miss Minnie Breese, sister of Willis Breese, 925 North Dunton ave., Arlington Heights, is still in the Philippines, where she is one of three American nurses who are caring for interned Americans. Some people were confused by a story that recently appeared in a Chicago paper and thought that she was a passenger on the Gripsholm, which is the exchange ship bringing nationals to the Americas.

Mrs. Breese, mother of the nurse, has been advised by the state department that her daughter is at Santa Thomas, near Manila. She has also had a communication from the Japanese government advising her that correspondence to Miss Breese must be limited to 25 typewritten words.

Mrs. Breese had recently seen a picture in a newspaper, which she thought resembled her daughter, and hoped that the nurse was on her way home, but there has been no news to confirm the hope.

Miss Breese was a 1932 graduate of the St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

Former resident brought to Arlington for burial

The remains of Mrs. Alvina Behnke, Chicago, were brought to Arlington Heights for burial last Friday. She had died the preceding Tuesday at the age of 84. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Behnke and their family were in Arlington Heights many years, leaving in the early 20's. A brother, Fred Milke, still resides here, as well as a number of nieces and nephews. There remain three daughters and three sons, all residents of Chicago.

War time exchange opens Friday, Dec. 3

The Arlington Heights wartime exchange will open at 9:30 a. m. Friday, Dec. 3, at 8 N. Dunton ave., rather than at the Methodist church as announced last week.

There will be many good used things for sale. Call Mrs. Ken Milstead at 1454 if you have toys, clothing or other articles to be sold. The exchange will be open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:15 to 11:15.

Printer answers call of the Marines

Harold Bauer, who has been employed in Paddock Publications fourteen months, left Tuesday in answer to a call from the Marines. Harold is only 17 years old, but was so anxious to do his part that he enlisted and was accepted by the marines early last summer. He was told to return home and after his 18th birthday he would be called.

Harold was 18 years old last month and a few days later he received his orders. He is the fourth employee of Paddock to enter service. His position is still unfilled and he will be missed, especially on press days.

High school assemblies popular

The regularly scheduled paid assembly programs which are part of the activities furnished from the student activity fee of $1.00 per year are proving very popular with the Arlington Heights student body. In addition to the assembly programs each student receives free admission to four football games, 10 basketball games, and the spring sports of track and baseball.

On October 28 the "Polomene Potters" gave a very interesting program during which one member of the company demonstrated the making of pottery while the other member gave some very interesting facts concerning the history of clays, ancient methods and examples, and the processes in firing and finishing the vases and other ceramic products.

The APOLLO Concert Artists, Mr. Giovanni Sperandio and Mrs. Elsa Sperandio, gave an interesting narration of the life of Mr. Sperandio who came to this country as a small immigrant boy from Sicily. In a train wreck he lost one arm and the other hand, and in spite of his handicap he completed his education and the study of music. Musical numbers were given between the several parts of the narration.

Monday, November 29, Dr. G. H. Giboulean gave an interesting lecture on "Mysterious India." Having spent 20 years in Burma and other parts of India he is able to tell a very fascinating story of those people and their customs.

The boys' athletic club, the "A" club, are sponsoring an evening show of magic on February 16, and will present a 40-minute assembly program to the students on that afternoon. As this assembly is to assist the "A" club boys in the financing of their letters and numerals, the club has the approval of the office for the performance at a charge of 11 cents per student. Tickets for the evening performance will be placed on sale in the near future.

Programs to come are "The Theatre Workshop" in which the back of the scenes preparations for a play are exposed; J. L. Turner, Penman Extraordinary, gives a lecture-demonstration to arouse greater interest in the value of better handwriting. The lecture is built around a series of handwriting feats, arranged in order according to the seeming difficulty of their performance. For instance, writing alike with both hands; writing forward, backward, or upside down with either hand or with both hands together; writing two separate sentences simultaneously while reciting memorized matter; writing with both hands and with the teeth at the same time, a different word with each, and reaching a climax with six letters or six numbers written simultaneously.

The periods are shortened from 60 minutes to forty minutes each on the days when assembly programs are held in order to provide the time required for the performance. In addition to the paid programs several programs are given free by the Navy property department, so that all together one program is held each month during the year.

Grade cards

High school grade cards are to be sent home December 3 for the information of parents. Please see that the cards are signed and returned to the school promptly. Parents are invited to interview teachers afternoons between 3:15 and 4:00 p. m., if student is failing or doing unsatisfactory work.

Ration board members not immune to oil heat troubles

It is not news when a user of oil for heating runs out of oil, but when the user happens to be a member of the ration board, it is proven that even ration board members are not immune to the troubles of private citizens.

It was a member of the Arlington Heights ration board who on Thanksgiving Day frantically phoned to an electrician to come and tell him why his heating plant had stopped operations. The electrician investigated and reported, "no oil."

Residents of the Lutheran Old Folks Home at 508 W. Northwest highway, received a delightful pre-taste of Christmas, Sunday, when they were each presented with beautiful gifts from Mr. William J. Bussert of the Amling Floral Co. in River Forest. Lovely rosebuds in glass containers and cellophane wrapped oranges and apples were given. Each package had a bright geranium tucked in its ribbon.

Two hours later a still alarm call was received from men at the navy field south of town who feared that a prairie fire might damage some of the navy property. Chicago Jahn and a few men answered the call.

GIVEN DISCHARGE

Pfc. Donald Zoellner got his CDD Honorable medical discharge. At present he is making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Zoellner at 101 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Ordination to priesthood

The Rev. Chauncey F. Minnick, Deacon in charge of St. John's Episcopal church in Mt. Prospect, will be advanced to the Sacred Priesthood at eleven o'clock on Sunday, December 5, at Grace Episcopal church in Oak Park. Bishop Wallace E. Conkling of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago will celebrate the Solemn Pontifical High Mass of Ordination. Also to be ordained to the priesthood at that time are the Rev. Frs. Earl W. Strausser and David Reid. Father Strausser is curate at Grace church, and Father Reid is Deacon in charge of St. Francis church in Chicago.

Members of Mount Prospect St. John's church will meet at the church at 10 a. m. and proceed from there in a body to Grace church. A ride-sharing arrangement will be worked out, so that all will be able to make the trip.

On the following day at 10 o'clock, Father Minnick will celebrate his first Eucharist at the altar of St. John's. The Rev. Don H. Copeland, Rector of St. James' Episcopal church in South Bend, will present Father Minnick for ordination and will act as arch-priest at his first Mass. The Rev. Richard A. Hayes, Priest in charge of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, Chalfont, Minnesota, will serve at this Eucharist.

Father Minnick is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended public schools and graduated from East high school in 1935. In 1940 he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Western Reserve University in Cleveland, and in June of this year he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Seabury-Western Seminary in Evanston. Father Minnick first came to St. John's as a seminary assistant on December 7, 1941, just two years ago. He was appointed pastor at the time of his ordination to the diaconate on June 3 of this year.

Andy Ladas host at annual party

Andy Ladas, proprietor of Arlington Cafe was host Tuesday evening to a group of sixty of his personal and business friends. Nov. 30 is "name day" for Andy and his annual parties on the last day of November are an event for which invitations are much sought after by his friends. Refreshments were plentiful and the last guest did not leave for home until it was time for Andy to open his restaurant. Occasional was well represented as well as close friends from Chicago and suburbs.

Ask 'rejectees' to return service kits

Bundles for America are not tying any strings to those service kits that they are giving to selectees called for service, but boys who are rejected by the examining board in Chicago, will be doing a good turn by returning the kits to selective service headquarters.

The increasing number of men called for service creates a steady drain upon the local Bundles for America unit. A return of a kit by a recipient who finds he is not entering the service at this time will be appreciated by the members of the unit and make their load that much lighter.

River Forest florist sends pre-Xmas gifts to Old Folks Home

Residents of the Lutheran Old Folks Home at 508 W. Northwest highway, received a delightful pre-taste of Christmas, Sunday, when they were each presented with beautiful gifts from Mr. William J. Bussert of the Amling Floral Co. in River Forest. Lovely rosebuds in glass containers and cellophane wrapped oranges and apples were given. Each package had a bright geranium tucked in its ribbon.

Receives 34 answers to a 50c classified

Mrs. C. T. Bohl, Palatine reported to Paddock Publications this week that she had 34 calls last week in answer to a classified advertisement. Ten of the answers were for the piano she offered.

Now is the time to sell furniture that is not needed. A classified adv. usually does the trick.

Scout Council Banquet is next Thursday

The annual banquet of the Northwest Suburban Council will be held at the Congregational church in Des Plaines, Thursday evening, December 9 at 6:45 p. m.

The program will include an opening ceremony by Scouts, invocation by Rev. Theodore Potter, pastor of the Des Plaines Methodist church, singing and music by C. L. Griffith and Oscar Kurtz of Arlington Heights, welcome message by C. S. Stewart, council president, executive's report by Stanley H. Huntington, Scout executive, installation of 1944 officers by S. H. Rosenthal, district commissioner of District 2, presentation of the Silver Beaver award by Einar J. Anderson, chairman of the Silver Beaver committee. The principal speaker will be Frank L. Holmes, principal of Main Township high school. Mr. Noble J. Puffer, County Supt. of Schools, will be the toastmaster. The program will conclude with a closing ceremony, singing of the national anthem, silent meditation for Scouts and Scouters in the armed service and the Scout benediction.

Members of the annual meeting committee are: John F. Gillick of Park Ridge chairman, Oscar C. Kurtz of Arlington Heights, Ralph Trenchard of Palatine, James E. Wax of Mount Prospect, J. R. Lawrence of Des Plaines, F. G. Smith, C. L. Soderberg of Park Ridge and C. S. Stewart of Des Plaines.

The meeting is open to all Scouts and Cubbers as well as interested parents of Cubs and Scouts. Tickets may be purchased from chairmen of Troop and Pack committees or at Scout headquarters in Park Ridge.

Rummage sale, toy exchange this Saturday

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church is holding a rummage sale and toy exchange Saturday, December 4, in the church basement starting at nine a. m.

According to the chairman, Mrs. Harvey Barber, there is a large supply of used clothing on hand for all ages, and a good attendance is expected. Mrs. M. L. Kurtz and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory are in charge of the toy exchange and are anxious to stress to the public that any one may bring toys to the affair. They will be priced and sold, and the owner will receive the amount of the sale minus a small commission for the church.

The group planned the toy exchange as an aid to parents at Christmas time, who are finding it most difficult to purchase toys that are attractive and durable. Metal toys are out for the duration, and if those in the village who have toys in their attics, discarded by their children, will get them out, and bring them to the sale, not only will they get some extra Christmas money for use in purchasing other gifts, but they will also help some other child to have a toy, which otherwise he would have to go without.

A visit to any toy section in the loop stores makes one realize the importance of a venture such as this. With the full cooperation of all, the sale should be an outstanding success. The committee is asking that the toys be turned in by December 3. For further information call Mrs. Kurtz, tel. 562-R or Mrs. Gregory, tel. 463-M.

Jr. women
meeting

The Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club held their annual reciprocity meeting on November 22, at the field house in their regular club rooms. Among the invited guests were the members of the Arlington Heights Senior Woman's club. The program consisted of marimba music played by Diane Andrews, and a book review by Father Hubbard, both from Park Ridge.

An announcement was made regarding a dance to be sponsored by the 7th District juniors and given for servicemen from Camp Sargash. The dance is to be held on Dec. 4 at the Jefferson Park Congregational church.

The Philanthropy board announced that the final balance realized by the book review of Florence Louka Ellis, was just barely $50.00. This money is to be turned over to the Infant Welfare board of Arlington Heights.

There is to be one meeting of the Junior club in December, and that is to be the annual Christmas party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilke and Mrs. Emma Friese spent a quiet Thanksgiving day Friday, everything changed to a happy surprise when their son, Richard, came home. He is stationed at Camp Ellis, near Peoria. He had a leave of absence and his family enjoyed a belated Thanksgiving.

Miss Mildred Gregory of Orange, N. J., came to Arlington Heights in time to attend the third birthday Nov. 20, of her niece, Ann Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gregory. The following day Mr. and Mrs. Porter Varney of Chicago were guests for dinner.

Miss Marian Elliott spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting the Homer Byrds in Indiana. The O. G. Barretts of Morenci, Michigan, formerly of Arlington Heights also were there.

Church Notes

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Cor. N. Duntun at Eastman St. Sunday church school for all ages will meet at 9:45 a. m. with C. I. Devay as superintendent. Sunday morning worship will begin at 11 o'clock when the pastor will preach on the topic "Value or Price." There will also be an offering by the choir, and the pastor will preach a Sunday sermon.

At 8 o'clock at the church there will be an important joint meeting of the session and board of trustees. Don't forget the Bible reading crusade. The chapters in the Bible to be read by thousands of people in the Chicago area from Dec. 1-15, are as follows: Isa. 55, Ps. 23, Lu. 2, Ps. 121, Ps. 91, I Cor. 13, Ja. 3, 14, 17.

If you have not as yet turned in your thank offering or war time service offering to the church you may do so at some time convenient to you, up to Dec. 31.

A cordial invitation to worship with us is extended to the public.

ST. JOHN EVANG. CHURCH

Cor. N. Evergreen and St. James W. F. Kampfenkel, Pastor. Church school, 9:30 a. m. Evening worship 10:30 a. m. The annual kingdom roll call consecration service will be held next Sunday morning.

Detailed information regarding our annual kingdom roll call will be sent you in the mails during the course of the next week. Kindly give it your earnest and prayerful consideration.

Every member is kindly asked to return the pledge card sent to him and with the morning worship service on December 6, at 10:30 a. m.

The Martha circle of our Women's guild will meet in the church assembly rooms, Thursday, December 2, at 1:30 p. m.

Word has been received of the death of Mr. Carl M. Teutsch's mother who passed away Tuesday night at her home in Chicago. Remains are resting at the Chapel, 2121 West 95th Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil F. Baumgarten and Mrs. Fred Baumgarten attended the funeral of their sister and daughter, Mrs. Martha Lenschow, Burlington, Ill., Monday. (Obituary appears in this issue).

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Becker visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Becker at Ontarioville, Sunday.

The puzzles are being distributed this week by the Den Dads. The Cubs are urged to complete these puzzles this week, so they can be sent to the hospitals in time for Christmas.

The paper drive is progressing and more boys are needed for work this Saturday and the week following. As the pick-up will be on the south side this Saturday, the Cubs and Scouts will meet at Lat-tofs Chevrolet garage at 8:30 in the morning. Be sure and come out for this patriotic drive.

Den 3 has missed Bob Evans the last three meetings. The boys hope Bob will recover real soon and return as their Denner. The assistant Denner, Stewart Revenagh, conducted the last meeting and the recreation period.

Donald Hesch and Richard Lull are anxious for Den 3 to start rehearsals for a play to be given at a pack meeting.

Harold Hodge passed his scrapbook last meeting and everybody got a laugh out of the marriage license and some of the pictures.

The Den is planning a meeting to wipe out the demerits that have been crowding by some members of the den.

Don't forget to return your puzzles promptly to your Den Dad. If you can fix more than one, tell your Den Dad and he will see that you are supplied.

Drug substitutes by C. W. LUSSMAN of Sieburg Drug Co.

War has removed, or curtailed many drugs from the shelves for which they had become known.

In many instances, substitutes in varying degrees of efficiency have taken their places. Which to accept and to use is a question. One which can be referred to the trusted druggist.

We are making every effort to obtain up to the minute information about substitutes and to stock the tested specifics as they appear on the market.

Pharmaceutical firms are making a splendid contribution in this field. Out of the laboratory come effective curatives from domestic sources. Extremely valuable discoveries are being made, producing remedies which are truly "American grown," and now obtainable.

We acknowledge our responsibility to our customers to keep informed about these discoveries, and to have them available when and as needed. It is a responsibility which we will not fail to accept and to practice.

130 Million Americans were hurt by this crash

Just a passenger car cracked up? Just one owner affected? No—a part of America's defense out of action.

Regardless of whether an accident or neglect does the damage, all potential car mileage lost is taken from our present irreplaceable supply of mileage that must see us through—or else.

You who own a car are entrusted with part of a vital national asset—America's car mileage. Will you take the necessary steps to preserve it?

Then have these things done:

Have tires, battery, spark plugs and other parts checked regularly and often to head off trouble.

Have your car prepared for safe cold weather operation with winter grade lubricants and anti-freeze.

Have every moving part protected against wasteful wear with correct lubrication at the proper intervals.

Your Tydol dealer can do all these things for you, and he will do them well. He's at your service for 72 hours every week to help you keep your car fit for the fight your country is making. You'll see to it, won't you?

Berte Pryce is in naval service, kept busy on Lake Michigan, carrying cargo of airplanes. He had time off Thanksgiving day to join his wife in home of her mother, Mrs. Ella Boeger, where they enjoyed a family dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and family of Des Plaines, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peters, last week Wednesday.

Mrs. Francis Sweet had open house last week Tuesday and many friends gathered to express good wishes to Mr. Sweet and regrets for his going away. He left Saturday to join the service.

THE Food THAT ISN'T RATIONED

YES, we mean Vitamins! But don't be lulled by the belief that all packaged vitamins are alike. They vary widely. The only standards by which a layman may judge are the responsibility and ethical standards of the manufacturer and vendor. The safe course is to see your Physician; let him prescribe for your special needs. Then bring his prescription here to Vitamin Headquarters.

Public invited to help fill Christmas stockings Dec. 8

The Bundles for America will hold an all day meeting next Wednesday at the field house. A large number of stockings are left to be filled. Everyone is invited to come and help.

OLD SOUTH COTTON BLOSSOM TOILETRIES

Inspired by the delicate, evanescent bloom of the Old South's fabulous "King Cotton", equal parts pure sunshine and enchanted moonlight. Subtle witchery to complement your loveliness. Old South Cotton Blossom

A group of friends were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Schneberger on Wednesday evening for dinner and bridge. The occasion honored the birthday of the host. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laurin received high honors at cards.

Girl scout troop honors mothers

Troop Three of the Arlington Heights Girl Scouts, gave a tea and program for their mothers on Monday evening.

The affair was held in the field house and the girls presented a program on Foods. It included information on how to prepare meats and poultry, the vitamin content of fruits and vegetables, and how to serve them attractively; the use of a pressure cooker in canning; and short cuts in the kitchen. The girls all presented their material in an intelligent and interesting manner.

Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Kennedy are leaders of this group, and are to be commended for their splendid work with the girls. Awards were presented to several girls for work accomplished and the girls will soon receive another award for the cooking classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Parker were Thanksgiving day guests at the home of relatives in Chicago. Robert Parker of Whitewater, Wis., spent the week-end with them.

Mr. Donald Stockdale and sons, Bill and Tom, spent the holiday week-end in Indiana, getting in a bit of hunting.

Arlington Eastern Star installs new officers

The new officers of chapter 992 of the Order of Eastern Star of Arlington Heights, were installed Saturday evening, in an impressive ceremony in the Presbyterian hall.

The installing officers, all past worthy matrons, were Lydia Hausman, installing officer, Georgiana Pankonin, chaplain, and Inez M. Sharp, marshal, and Delia Krueger, a member of Palatine chapter, organist.

Raul Peeters, George Volz and Irving Tesch, past worthy patrons, served as escorts to the installing officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nearing of Chicago, were the soloists for the evening, and were accompanied by Mr. Elmer Farnhill of Chicago.

Blanche Dick gave a beautiful Ode to the flag, which was presented by Mr. Elmer Crane, and the audience took part in the pledge of allegiance and the singing of the National Anthem.

Frank Hausman and Charles Pankonin, past worthy patrons served as ushers at the installation, and Alma Tesch, Carla Ehret and Maybelle Jasper, past worthy matrons, were members of the Courtesy committee.

The installation service always an impressive one, was no exception this year, and the newly elected worthy matron, Dorothy Dutton, made a lovely picture, as she took her vows, with her officers gowned in white as a background. Mr. Harold Hastings was installed as worthy patron. Other officers who were installed were:

Lillian Wolf—Associate Matron.
Florence Luckner—Secretary.
Myrtle L. Frey—Treasurer.
Agnes Olson—Conductress.
Katharine Hines—Associate Conductress.
Gertrude Milligan—Chaplain.

Ruth Lloyd—Organist.
Escher Anthonissen—Adah.
Della Crane—Ruth.
Mildred Blohm—Esther.
Marie Boite—Martha.
Minnie Lange—Electa.
Ruth Schult—Warder.
Chas. Peters—Sentinel.

Elmer Crane will serve as color bearer for the year, and Celia Hausman will be the instructress.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremony, the retiring worthy matron, Gertrude Milligan, was presented with her past officers' jewel by Blanche Dick, William Milligan, retiring worthy patron, was presented with his jewel by George Volz, both commending these officers on the successful year just completed, each responding most appropriately.

The large and attentive audience and the beauty and dignity of the Eastern Star ceremony were an inspiration to all who attended.

Miss Marjorie Annen flew to Louisville, Kentucky, Wednesday last week, to spend Thanksgiving day with friends and returned to the village on Sunday.

Miss Mary Heller spent the holiday week-end with her family here and the E. H. Hellers were Thanksgiving day guests of Rose, Mary and Elizabeth Heller.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laurin and son, Neil, spent the Thanksgiving day holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Henning Runge of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ewert, Mrs. J. A. Sigwalt, Mrs. Esther Seipe and daughter and Mrs. Van Kirk, all of Des Plaines, were Thanksgiving day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ewert.

Bonnie Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Peterson celebrated her 11th birthday on Monday, when she entertained a group of her friends at a party to honor the occasion.

High school
fall festival
December 11

The annual Fall Festival will be presented by the music and dramatic department of Arlington high school Saturday, Dec. 11, at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

The concert band, baton twirlers, string ensemble, girls triple trio, and girls chorus of one hundred and sixty eight voices will sing and play a pleasing variety of songs and peppy marches, under the direction of Mr. Donald Costain.

The Dramatics club will present a one act comedy coached by Miss Virginia Kral, school speech instructor.

Tickets for the Festival may be purchased from any member of the music or dramatic club members, or at the door. Adult tickets are 35c and children 20c. No seats are reserved.

Mrs. Dattilo and daughter from Park Ridge, visited Mrs. P. H. Wiese, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duecker of Chicago were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hines.

Evelyn Vogel, Christ Fritz are married

Miss Evelyn Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vogel of 701 South Highland ave., Arlington Heights, was married Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, to Mr. Adam Fritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Fritz of Prairie View. The wedding which had been planned for the Christmas holidays, was moved up the present date, when the bridegroom, who is a staff sergeant in the U. S. Army, had his furlough moved up.

The wedding took place in the St. John's Evangelical church, where the altar was banked with baskets of white mums. Rev. Kampfenkel officiated at the service.

The bride wore for her wedding, a burgundy chiffon velvet street dress, with matching accessories. She carried white roses.

Miss Bernice Garms served as maid of honor and wore a street dress of green crepe. Her flowers were rust and yellow chrysanthemums.

Christ Fritz served as best man for his brother.

Mrs. Vogel wore for her daughter's wedding a silver gray wool crepe gown, and Mrs. Fritz was gowned in soldier blue crepe.

A wedding reception and dinner were held for a hundred guests in the Vogel home following the wedding, where decorations in red, white and blue, added a patriotic touch to the occasion.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school with the class of '39 and is now employed with the E. W. A. Rowles Co. The bridegroom, farmed prior to his entry into the armed forces.

Following his fifteen day furlough, he will return to duty at Camp Polk, La., and the bride will make her home with her parents for the duration. Many guests were present from Glen Ellyn, Waukegan, Chicago, and other surrounding suburbs.

Local family takes part in city wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Forrest and their two daughters, Virginia and Carol, all had the honor of taking part in a military wedding Saturday, when Mr. Forrest's brother, Lieut. George E. Forrest, was married to Miss Mary Grace Alden of Chicago.

The wedding took place Saturday evening in the Judson Baptist church, and was a candle light service.

Mrs. Forrest served as bridesmaid, and the bride's sister, Priscilla, served as maid of honor.

Mr. Forrest was best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Ken Thompson of Austin, and John Alden of the U.S.N., brother of the bride.

The two Forrest daughters served as flower girls, and were gowned in long full skirted pink taffeta dresses, trimmed in blue. Mrs. Forrest wore ice blue satin, and the other attendant, pink satin. The bride wore formal bridal satin.

Lieut. Forrest is stationed in California, and the young couple will make their home there.

OES notes

Arlington Heights Chapter held their annual meeting Nov. 11. The Chapter was again honored by the appointment of Mrs. George Sharp on the Special Charity and Service committee of the Grand Chapter of Illinois. Three more members were added to the roll when the degrees were conferred upon Mrs. Dewey Scott, Mrs. Harry Schuldt and Mrs. Henry Anthonissen. The soloist, Mrs. Miner McEuen, rendered appropriate singing during the initiation and throughout the evening.

The officers of 1943 and all chairmen of committees were escorted to the east and introduced. The worthy matron, Mrs. Wm. L. Milligan expressed her sincere appreciation for their loyal co-operation during the year.

One of the charity projects for the coming year is the selling of a special Eastern Star Christmas Seal. The proceeds of this sale will go toward the O.E.S. home at Rockford, Sanitarium at Macon, Illinois, Masonic Service Men's center, and Illinois Masonic Hospital building fund. These seals can be purchased from Mrs. Ernest Luckner and Mrs. George Sharp. They will be very useful on Christmas packages and cards.

The installation of the new officers will take place Saturday evening, November 27, at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Edward Dutton is the worthy matron elect and Harold Hastings the worthy patron elect.

The Past Worthy Matron's club will meet with Mrs. Elmer Laurin on Tuesday evening, December 7. The occasion will be a Christmas party in conjunction with their regular meeting.

May purchase books PTA book fair Friday

The time for book shopping for Christmas is at hand, with the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher book fair scheduled for Friday evening.

The fair is being held in the north school at 8:00 o'clock, and tickets have been sent home to all parents through the school children, and are being sold by the room mothers and members of the P.T.A. board, at 35 cents each. The project was not only planned for its educational value, but as a great aid to Christmas shoppers, and as the one money making project of the Parent-Teacher association for the year. The association will receive 20 per cent of all books sold, as well as the admission price. It is hoped that this one project will be the only one needed to raise the budget for the year.

Miss Olive Flaherty will present the books to the children in the afternoon and at that time will review several for the children. Mr. Clabaugh has arranged to have the children have an opportunity to visit the sale rooms. Miss Catherine E. Adamson, head of the children's department of the Hill Branch Library of Chicago, will be the reviewer for the evening, and comes highly recommended. Mrs. Fred Utterback will sing at the evening program. Mrs. Paul Collins, president of the P.T.A., will greet the guests of the book fair, and Mr. Baldwin, civic recreation chairman, Mr. R. E. Clabaugh, school superintendent and Mr. Warren Fellingham will have charge of the program.

are depleted on Friday evening, they will be refilled, and a good selection will be on hand on Saturday.

Miss Ida B. Swail, publishers representative is in charge of the books. Room mothers and Parent-Teacher members will serve as book salesmen, and will be distinguished by caps made by the art department of the school. The fair proved most popular last year and is being repeated thru the co-operation of the room mothers, the P.T.A. and the teachers, under the leadership of the Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. N. K. Barr.

Refreshments will be served to make the evening complete, and Mrs. Rex Volz and Mrs. Paul Collins will preside at the tea table.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

It happened here

This November day has flowered beautifully like a richly petaled chrysanthemum culled from the borders, uncurling in the frosty rose of the sunrise until the whole glorious heart flamed at sunset. . . We tho't it was a new high in something when our grocer, answering the phone, said plaintively, "I hope you don't want anything today." Taking this and that into consideration, we decided we didn't if it would help him out any. We are friends, over the phone, with an appreciation of our mutual problems, trying together for a satisfactory solution of the knotty things but seldom getting the answer in the book. Our amiable grocer, when he can't furnish the articles asked for will come across with a suggestion at least. "Why not take two cups of flour, half a cup of lard, two teaspoons of baking powder and enough milk to make a soft dough?" he offered one day as a solution for a scarcity of the biscuit mix we ordered. There's no keeping a good grocer down.

Under the trees whose leaves are spent Taste, now, a new, sharp sacrament. Let the heart bow and contrite be, Waiting in true humility; Let tho't of self and wilful pride Be in all meekness cast aside; The humble heart is all He asks. A grace to dignify all tasks. O, tree, that once in verdure stood, Patience to wait is also good. S'Amuser.

New home and auto supply store

A large, new enterprise will take its place in the business life of Des Plaines with the grand opening on Thursday, Dec. 9, of the modern new Firestone Des Plaines Home and Auto Supply store at 1570 Miner st.

The manager of this fine new store which will feature all the many needed items found in the Firestone line, is Miss Alma Altera, a resident of Des Plaines. Miss Altera promises gifts for everyone at the opening ceremonies beginning on Thursday morning, December 9. The program will begin at 9 a. m. Thursday morning and continue until 9 p. m. the following Saturday.

This new store will have 16 big departments and will offer many quality home and automobile supplies at low introductory prices. Complete details of the program and the gift offering will be announced in this paper next Thursday.

Expands Chemical Industry

Brazil is an important example of chemical industry expansion. Products manufactured include sulphuric acid, nitric acid, sodium bisulphate and sodium bicarbonate. The tanning industry has benefited by manufacture of chromium salts from domestic ore. Output of aluminum sulphate has been stepped up to between 500 and 600 tons a month, double the pre-war total.

Recovery from illness and maintaining health depends to a great degree on proper food, sufficient rest and decent standards of cleanliness.

Perhaps in no other disease are these factors so important as in the case of tuberculosis. Moderate living and sound hygienic practices have tremendous influence on the incidence of this disease, on the rapidity with which its victims recover and on the susceptibility of other persons to it.

War-time living conditions create many problems affecting health and general sanitation. The demand for increased production brings long and irregular working hours, crowded living conditions, stress and strain, and frequently poor nourishment. History has shown that war, which in turn results in these conditions, brings about an increase in tuberculosis, as well as other types of disease. When the body becomes overtired and strength and energy are not restored sufficiently by sleep and proper food, nature has a double battle to fight in warding off disease.

Homemakers, frequently engaged in war work themselves, may slight preparation of meals and lunch boxes. Particularly in industrial centers, lack of adequate housing facilities may force two or three families to live where one formerly resided. All of these contribute to the lowering of resistance and "invite" infection to enter.

Thus is set the stage for disease, particularly tuberculosis. It is the duty of every member of the family to take every precaution to see that he gets sufficient rest, even if it is necessary to sacrifice some recreation time. Rational points should be used wisely apportioned so that well-balanced meals are assured for each ration period. If living conditions are not ideal, every possible means should be exerted to see that cleanliness is maintained at all times, and that the sleeping quarters are kept quiet during the hours when each individual must get his sleep.

By careful observance of these rules many diseases will be kept under control or at a minimum.

Bible Crusade observance at Methodist church

The Rev. Thomas Holloway, who will speak at the Methodist church Sunday evening, is associate secretary of the Southwestern District of the American Bible Society with headquarters in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Holloway holds an M. A. degree from Princeton University and a degree of Th. B. and Th. M. from Princeton Theological Seminary. In 1937 he traveled extensively in Europe, Palestine and Syria with a party of student leaders who attended the Baptist Youth World Conference at Zurich.

Mr. Holloway came to the Bible Society in 1942 after nine years as minister for Baptist College students in Dallas, employed by the Baptist General Convention of Texas. He is an excellent speaker and has a vital, evangelistic message.

Lorraine Duenow, W. Mensching wed

At 8 Saturday evening, Nov. 20, Miss Lorraine Lydia Duenow and Walter Mensching exchanged marriage vows at St. Paul's Evangelical church, the Rev. William Rest officiating. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Duenow of South Beloit, Wis. Mr. Mensching's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mensching, 470 Poplar st.

As the wedding march was played by Mrs. Arthur Ackmann, the couple approached the candle-lighted altar which was banked with potted palms. Before the ceremony Miss Darlene Bauer and Miss Mary Jane Diller sang "I Love You Truly" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Otto Bauer Jr.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Leon B. Jones of Beloit, Wis. She wore a street-length dress of ice blue trimmed with gold nailheads. Her hair snood matched her dress and her accessories were black. A handkerchief belonging to the bridegroom's mother, and a gold bracelet which had belonged to her own mother carried out the "something old and something borrowed" tradition, while her corsage consisted of yellow roses.

Mrs. Ralph Carlson of Beloit, the bride's sister and matron of honor, wore a pastel pink street-length dress with matching hair bow and black accessories. Her flowers were roses and pompons. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Lester Hughes, also of Beloit, was dressed in aqua. Her hairbow also matched her dress and she too wore roses and pompons. Arthur Mensching was Mr. Mensching's best man and Leonard and Donald Mensching ushered.

Two hundred guests were entertained at the reception which took place immediately following the ceremony at the Elgin Labor temple. After a short trip the couple will be at home at 628 Lincoln ave.

For the last few years the bride has been employed at the Modern Beauty shop at Beloit. The bridegroom is a defense worker at the Buick plant, Melrose Park.

STATE OF ILLINOIS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

For work to be constructed under the Motor Fuel Tax Law.

1. Time and Place of Opening Bids. Sealed proposals for the improvement of the thoroughfare (s) described herein will be received at the office of the Council or President and Board of Trustees of Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois, until 8 o'clock p. m., C.W.T., December 13, 1943, and at that time publicly opened and read.

2. Description of Work. (a) The proposed work is officially known as Section 11-C.S. and provides for the construction of approximately 350 feet of storm sewer in Highland Ave. from Grove St. to South St. (Art. St. No. 9) together with manholes and other necessary appurtenances.

3. Instructions to Bidders. (a) Plans and specifications may be obtained from the Municipal Clerk or at the office of the Municipal Engineer.

(b) Proposal forms may be obtained at the office of the Municipal Clerk, or at the office of the Municipal Engineer.

(c) All proposals must be accompanied by a bank cashier's check, or bank draft for ten (10) per cent of the amount of the bid, as provided in the "Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction" prepared by the Department of Public Works and Buildings of the State of Illinois, adopted by said Department July 1, 1942.

(d) This improvement is subject to the provision of House Bill 350, which provides that not less than prevailing wage rates be paid to labor on public construction. These wage rates are included in the proposal form.

4. Rejection of Bids. The Council of President and Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive technicalities.

By order of The President and Board of Trustees of Arlington Heights. November 5, 1943. HELENE BUSSE, Acting Clerk. (12-10)

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Wm. Wichmann

Funeral services for Mrs. Wm. Wichmann were held Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 1, from Lutheran church, St. Peter Lutheran church; interment in Euclid Lawn cemetery. Mrs. Wichmann had fallen in her home three weeks ago, but her death is not attributed to any injury she received at that time. She had been in failing health and gradually grew worse. Nov. 23 she was taken to the Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines, where she passed away Sunday morning at the age of 71 years, 9 months, 22 days.

Ernestine Behlke was born in Germany Feb. 6, 1872. She came to America with her parents when 13 years old, settling in Bloomington, Ill. She was married to William Wichmann in Des Plaines Sept. 15, 1889, settling on a farm on Palatine rd. near Milwaukee ave., where they resided 26 years. For the past quarter of a century, Mr. and Mrs. Wichmann have been residents of Arlington Heights, living on West Wing st. in recent years.

Three children were born to them, two of whom, William and Elsie (Mrs. Martin) Schoenbeck, preceded their mother in death fifteen and twenty years ago, respectively. A son, Henry, resides in Barrington. Besides her husband there are also five grandchildren to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Martha Lenschow

Mrs. Martha Lenschow, 54, wife of Fred Lenschow of Burlington, died Saturday morning at 1 at Restville Sanitarium, following an extended illness.

She was born in Schaumburg on June 10, 1889 and had resided in this vicinity all of her life. She was married to Mr. Lenschow on April 3, 1910 and since that time had resided in Burlington. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran church of Burlington, the Ladies' Aid, the Friendly Circle and the J.C.C.

Besides her widower, she is survived by one son, Edwin Lenschow of Burlington; her mother, Mrs. Minnie Baumgarten of Palatine; a sister, Mrs. George Hanssaharris of Norwood Park, and four brothers, Herman Baumgarten of Marquette, Wis., Emil Baumgarten of Arlington Heights, Arthur Baumgarten of Chicago and William Baumgarten of Palatine. Besides her father, Fred Baumgarten, who died two months ago, she was preceded in death by one sister, Miss Rose Baumgarten.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 12 from the Northside mortuary, Elgin, and 1 from St. John's Lutheran church at Burlington with the Rev. Werner Schmidtke officiating. Burial in Burlington-Union cemetery.

Lorene Moehling

Lorene Moehling, nee Fletcher, beloved wife of Mr. Kurt Moehling, was born March 10, 1912, at Chatsworth, Iowa, and passed away at her home at 530 S. Chestnut ave., Arlington Heights, on Tuesday morning, November 30, at the age of 31 years, 8 months, and 20 days. She was united in marriage to Mr. Kurt Moehling on Feb. 27, 1943, by Rev. Gehrs, and since their marriage, have made their home in Arlington Heights.

Her death was very sudden. She had spent the evening with a neighbor and retired in apparent good health. Her husband, suddenly awakened, discovered she was very ill and she passed away within a few moments.

She leaves to mourn her sudden departure, her loving husband, Mr. Kurt Moehling, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fletcher, of Akron, Iowa; a father-in-law, Mr. Henry Moehling; three sisters, Muriel, Maude, Laura, all of Akron, Iowa; and seven brothers, Edgar Fletcher, Des Plaines, Quigley Fletcher, Palatine, Raymond, Floyd, Roland, Darcey, Elmo, all of Akron, Iowa; ten sisters-in-law and five brothers-in-law, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 1, at Karstens Funeral home at Arlington Heights, after which the remains were taken to Akron, Iowa, where services will be on Friday afternoon.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband and our father who passed away three years ago, December 3, 1940. He bid no one a last farewell, He said Good-bye to none; His loving heart had ceased to beat.

Before we knew it he was gone. Mrs. Lillie Kreft and Children.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbors and to Mr. Gells for their kindness and sympathy offered us in our recent bereavement. Also to Rev. Bergstrasser for his kind and comforting words.

Mr. Wm. Prueter and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

With deep appreciation and sincere gratitude we extend our heartfelt thanks for your kind expression of sympathy in our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. James Milligan and Family. Mrs. D. F. Milligan.

Fred Hattendorf

Fred Hattendorf was born December 22, 1855, in Schaumburg township, received his education in the Schaumburg Lutheran school and was confirmed at the Schaumburg Lutheran church by Rev. Schmidt.

He was united in marriage to Miss Wilhelmina Haemker by Rev. G. A. Mueller at Schaumburg. This couple, during their marriage, made their home in Schaumburg township; Mrs. Hattendorf passed away June 25, 1937; this couple were married 47 years.

For the past 3 years and 8 months Mr. Hattendorf has been making his home with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hattendorf at Ontarioville, where on Saturday evening, Nov. 27, he passed away at the age of 87 years, 11 months and 5 days.

He leaves to mourn his departure, nine living children, Mr. Arthur Hattendorf of Ontarioville, Mrs. Emily Straub of Hanover

Married on 32nd anniversary of bride's parents

Miss Helen Beile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beile, 108 S. Walnut st., Arlington Heights, became the bride of Mr. Henry P. Valerius on the 32nd wedding anniversary of her parents, Thanksgiving day, Nov. 25. The informal ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richards at the Sauganash Community church at 4:30 o'clock. The bridal couple were attended by Mrs. Hegglund, a close friend of the bride and Mr. Blackhawk, a friend of the groom. Following the ceremony the wedding party enjoyed dinner at the Homestead, Wilmette. Mr. and Mrs. Valerius are residing in the Northshore Hotel, Evanston.

Demand for turkeys greatest in history

Keith Chidley, proprietor of the Sunset Turkey farm, is very thankful that Thanksgiving is over. The demand for turkeys this year exceeded any previous season. It was with difficulty that he was able to fill orders received by him prior to Nov. 10, which was the final order date. He does not know what to say about Christmas turkeys. An increasing number of housewives prefer fresh killed and dressed fowl to birds that go thru the regular market channels.

Italy

Also writing from Italy this week is Al Duenn of Arlington Heights, who wrote to the local FW organization regarding membership in that group.

"Have been overseas now for a year. I have often thought of joining the veterans group and am glad to be in it. I used to laugh at the stories the boys used to tell about the last war, but now realize they were all true.

"Things get tough here now and then, but we've plenty of men that can take it."

His address is Pfc. Albert E. Duenn, 3600397, APO 3 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Changing his address in Italy this week is Robert Haberstick of Bloomington.

"Feeling fine and am kept plenty busy here in Italy. Can't say much about what's going on here, but may be able to write more later. By the way, haven't seen the Register lately, perhaps my latest change of address didn't go through."

His present address is T/5 Robert B. Haberstick, ASN 36332159, APO 464 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Hawaii

Writing from Hawaii this week is Eugene St. Clair of Palatine.

"Tell the people back home that the job they are doing buying war bonds, aiding the USO and Red Cross, is well worth while. We boys overseas appreciate it. Some of the boys aren't so patriotic but they will be after they are in awhile. I know."

"I have seen Lyle Taylor over here and also heard that Doc Starck is here. I have also seen the Southport girl. Maybe there are a few other Palatine representatives, and I may meet them."

His address is S/Sgt Eugene St. Clair, ASN 16028294 APO 953 c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Two brothers stationed on islands of Hawaii are Roy and Raymond Prince of Chicago, formerly of Arlington Heights. Roy was just recently sent to Honolulu from Attu while Ray is on another island close by. Roy was recently granted the Purple Heart for wounds received on Attu.

Recently Raymond was granted a five day furlough and went by bomber to Honolulu where the two took in the sights of that city.

India

Arriving in India is Wally Kehe of Arlington Heights.

"Sure have seen a lot of sights during the trip that I hope I never have to see again. I have been transferred to a new outfit that I am happy about. It seems funny to be back at a typewriter again in my old job."

His address is Cpl. Walter C. Kehe, ASN 20613581 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Washington

Aviation Cadet Robert Herman Schwolow, age 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schwolow of 9 N. Pine ave., Arlington Heights, successfully completed his primary flight training at the Naval Air Station at Pasco, Washington and was transferred to Corpus Christi, Texas for advanced flight training. After about three months he will receive his Navy "Wings" and a commission as Ensign in the Naval Reserve or Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Cadet Schwolow was graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1941.

Kentucky

Harold D. Bingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Bingham, Dundee road, Wheeling, and August J. Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. August P. Barnett, R. 1, Box 282, Arlington Heights, has arrived at Transylvania College, Lexington, Kentucky, for course of Army Air Force instruction lasting approximately five months prior to their appointment as Aviation Cadets in the Army Air Forces. During this period they will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course they will be classified as pilot, navigator or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.

Aviation Student Harold Douglas Bingham of Wheeling, is now attending pre-flight school at Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky. Doug. has completed his basic training at Miami Beach, Florida.

Returning to Camp Howze, Texas, recently was Fritz Lauterburg of Arlington Heights. Fritz was home for ten days and spent most of his time with the folks at home.

Georgia

Lt. and Mrs. James B. Jackson of Prospect Heights, are leaving this week for Fort Benning, Ga., where the lieutenant will be stationed. He is in communications and has just returned from a naval school at Stanford. They will make the trip to Georgia by car.

Texas

Writing from the Amarillo air field, Texas, is Don Dinse of Palatine.

"Yesterday I had 24 hour guard duty on the field. I had to guard 3 Boeing B-17's (Fortress), 5 consolidated B-24's (Liberators) and 2 B-25's (Marauder). They were loaded with live bombs and guns.

I helped an officer start one. I had to "stand-by" with the fire extinguisher. Really fun. I carried a 30-06 Springfield rifle. I had 2 hours on and 4 hours off.

"Was classified as mechanic and gunner with radio as second choice. They gave us 3 tests and 3 choices. The officer said I should do very well as an airplane mechanic. So if I stay 'on the ball' I will get to be a flying engineer. I got 150 on the mechanical test, 143 on the trade knowledge test and 110 on radio. 100 was passing on all of them.

"I'm going through things just now that I never dreamed of doing. Crawling on my belly for hours on end, becoming immune to weather and hard knocks. I can kill a man with my hands, but I hope I never have to. It's no joke to be thrown 10 or 15 feet and land on hard ground.

I weigh 158 and am doing things I never could do before. Another fella and I carried a 33 gallon pail full of sand by ourselves. That's about 600 pounds by rough estimate.

"You should see the beautiful sunsets here in the evening. It is getting very cold and windy here now. I wear long underwear and am glad to have it.

"I get the Palatine Blab every week and enjoy reading the gossip."

"Here is a poem I came across that describes army life. If you feel like feelin' gloomy, You can look around and see Just about a hundred reasons To be as blue as you can be. Every one is mean and selfish. World is growing worse each day. Life is hardly worth the livin'— If you want to feel that way."

If you feel like feelin' happy, It's an easy thing to find; Every one around seems busy Seeking chances to be kind. And if you will only notice, You'll discover it is true, Whether folks are cross or pleasant, Just depends a lot on you.

His address is Pvt. Don Dinse, 904 Trg Gr Btc, 414 TS, Amarillo army air field, Amarillo, Texas.

Returning to Camp Howze, Texas, recently was Fritz Lauterburg of Arlington Heights. Fritz was home for ten days and spent most of his time with the folks at home.

Montana

Now attending Montana state college at Bozeman, Montana, is Harold Nebel of Arlington Heights.

"Greetings from Montana! The army has sent me to the coldest state in the union and I like it very much. I've been here for two weeks now studying engineering and will be here for quite some time. The courses are very hard, but by studying I believe I'll be able to make it.

"This is really different from Camp Roberts where I saw nothing but desert. This town is entirely surrounded by beautiful snow-capped mountains. People tell me that there will be snow here next June, so I can see myself, if I have any time, going to bogganing plenty in the near future.

"I go to school from 8 to 5 Monday through Saturday, so you can imagine how much I enjoy Sunday a day a week. Receive your paper regularly every week and really enjoy reading news from good old Arlington.

"The people in Bozeman treat us swell. Do almost anything for us. Last Saturday night I was invited out to a home-cooked chicken dinner which was my first in six months."

"Got to close and do a little math now."

His address is Pvt. Harold Nebel 15109163 Co. B, ASTU 3936, Montana State College, Bozeman, Montana.

Virginia

Visiting her son, Herbert, at Norfolk, Va. the past week was Mrs. Henry Malzahn of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Malzahn couldn't locate her son when she first arrived and was afraid he had been shipped out once more. Upon contacting the USO, however, he was quickly found.

Herb has since left for New York city where he will soon again leave for the high seas as a member of Uncle Sam's navy. Mrs. Malzahn reported that the trains were very crowded, but that many servicemen offered their seats to her while en route.

Just moving to Camp Pickett, Virginia, is John Booth of Palatine.

"We are now on our way to a new station, leaving Camp Bowie, Texas. Glad to see Palatine is doing her part in the bond drives, USO, etc. Keep it going."

His address is Cpl. John Booth, Med. Det. 706 Tk Bn, Camp Pickett, Va.

At sea

Now on sea duty in the Atlantic ocean is Dick Goedke of Arlington Heights. Dick is an aerographer in the Navy. He studies and reports atmospheric conditions on board ship.

"By the time you get this letter I will be out to sea. I met the new aerographers and they seem like swell guys. I don't know how long I'll be on sea duty but I guess I'll learn to like it."

His address is Richard Goedke ArecM 3/C, c/o Fleet PO, New York, N. Y.

Kansas

Capt. Douglas Milligan, of Arlington Heights, who was killed in a bomber crash Thanksgiving day at Liberal field, Kansas, wrote the following letter to the publication office just prior to his death.

"I've been here at the Liberal Army Air Field since last June—and can't say that I care for Kansas too much. It's cold at night, hot during the day, and dusty at all times (not a tree in sight)."

"We fly B-24s here and give pilot's transition work before they go to tactical units and out into combat. Believe it or not the work keeps us busy all hours of the day and night—seven days a week."

"I've had several occasions to fly home, and my last visit was last July. I guess all a pilot ever lives for is to get to fly back home. Just now I'm planning to get a leave sometime in December—so I hope to see everyone then—i.e. all those that aren't away in the army."

"If I get to be home over Christmas, it will be the first time in three years. I keep saying 'I' but that of course includes the wife and daughter."

"I've received the Herald ever since I've been in the army and it surely keeps me posted on things at home—and the fellows in the service."

Writing from Hutchinson, Kansas, is Bob Jacobs of Arlington Heights.

"I graduated from Del Monte pre-flight school Sept. 13 and I am now stationed at N.A.S., Hutchinson, Kansas. Here I will receive approximately 100 hours of flying in the 'Yellow Peril'."

"This base is certainly a swell place. It isn't quite as big as Glenview, but it is just as nice. We have a beautiful reception hall here where we have movies every night. We also have a bowling alley, pool hall, etc."

Arlington Heights is being represented by 3 of us and all of us are going to bring a good name for our town."

The Robert Bingham of Wheeling, had an extra reason to celebrate Thanksgiving this year, for Bob received his commission as captain just the day before.

Captain Bingham, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, received his basic training and attended officer school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He is a member of the 313 Field Artillery, 80th Division, now stationed at Camp Phillips, Kansas. He is making his home at Abilene, Kansas.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Haake of Mt. Prospect arrived here last week to spend ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haake. It is the first time that Lieut. Haake has been home since he entered the service in February, 1942. He is in the Ferry Command and has been in nearly every state in the country.

A party in honor of the visiting couple was held at the Haake home last Saturday evening. They leave Thursday to return to Kansas City, Kansas.

No. Dakota

Gerald D. Moore, 19, Rt. 1, Arlington Heights was graduated recently from the Naval Training School (Machinists) on the campus of the North Dakota State School of Science, Wahpeton, N. Dak. He is in the Ferry Command and has been in nearly every state in the country.

A party in honor of the visiting couple was held at the Haake home last Saturday evening. They leave Thursday to return to Kansas City, Kansas.

Selected for this special training on the basis of his recruit training aptitude tests the Bluejacket completed a course of study that included the use, operation and maintenance of internal combustion engines. A theoretical phase also included the fundamentals of heat, vapor pressure, hydraulics, ventilation, atmospheric pressure and electricity.

Solomons

Now in the Solomons islands is Kenneth Behnke of Palatine.

"We are now in the Solomon Islands, and from the looks of this place the first guys here must have had a hard time getting through these jungles. We have a swell place to go swimming and wash our clothes. We were in New Caledonia for a while, but it's nothing to brag about."

"All I want now is that the war will soon be over and I can get to see that girl in Heights who is waiting for me, I hope."

His address is Pvt. Kenneth Behnke, ASN 36622252, APO 709, c/o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

England

Writing from England this week is Lt. Al Kahling of Arlington Heights.

"Once again I'm back with my unit and I must admit that London can really take the zip out of a person. Naturally I have a few officer friends in London and with their connections we managed to have a fairly enjoyable week-end. Nevertheless, I'm glad to be back and settle down to the old routine and a more sane and sober life."

"England, as you stated, is rather behind the times in comparison to the U.S.A. In certain larger cities I believe their means of transportation excels ours, but as a general rule it is rather slow. The policemen, 'Bobbies', still walk about as nonchalant as ever and are still minus the 'gat'. It doesn't make sense, but on the other hand they seem to handle the situation very well and don't have the crime problem to contend with as our policemen do."

"Entertainment in the form of sports is rather limited and as yet I haven't heard of or seen any bowling alleys as we know them. During the summer months the main part of my spare time was spent in softball and at the present a basketball league is being formed. The Americans don't seem to take to the English sports of soccer or cricket and after watching several matches I can see why. It just doesn't have the speed and thrills that Americans enjoy."

"On the other hand, the English have taken to our softball game and I must admit I've seen some excellent English teams. They still couldn't defeat our best, although I wouldn't bet on a game played during the next war, if the English keep playing the game. Also, here's hoping there's no such thing as a next war."

"To date I have received several letters from Al Duenn and am presently awaiting to hear from him. He seems to be doing O.K. and I'm sure he shall have many an interesting tale. As you know, I saw Bob Duenn over here, but it is rather difficult to coordinate our leaves and so it's very improbable that I shall see him again. I also saw Lt. Eddie Desrie and we did spend one enjoyable evening. At the present I'm looking forward to seeing Len Thake, but I guess that will also be impossible. He's stationed fairly close, but the old problem of leave is standing in the way. Perhaps my best bet is to forget it and wait till we arrive in good old Arlington."

Writing from England this week is August Dueball of Arlington Heights.

"Received your letter of Nov 3 today and was glad to hear from you. Received your swell package, especially the fruit-cake. Oh Boy, you don't see any like it over here except some that the other boys have received."

"Ruth wrote about the price of haircuts back home. That's one thing that's cheap over here. You can get a haircut for about a quarter and a shave for about 15c. I wish everything else would compare with this. A party over here went out to price some bed sheets and they cost $10 each. Now you know where our money goes. I would like to send some nick-nacks but they are sky high so I'll have to forget about that."

"I met an elderly couple over here that have treated me pretty swell. I have had several dinners with them. There are still quite a few flowers in bloom over here."

His address is Sgt. August E. Dueball 36346403 361st Service Sq. APO 638, c/o Postmaster, N. Y., N. Y.

Writing from England is Austin Bunick of Arlington Heights.

"Have arrived in England and am having a swell time. Expect a five day pass soon and will see the high spots then."

"I wish the girls at home could see how the English are carrying on this war. Almost all women are in uniform, and you see practically no civilians anywhere. The women build the guns, build ships, run ships, dig ditches and a great deal of other things. It's hard to believe."

Sgt. James Barth of Bensenville has arrived safely in England, it was learned this week. "Trip over was swell. It was a little rough, but we all took it. The people here are wonderful to us."

Letters have been received from Lt. John Sicks of Wheeling from "somewhere in England." He reports a fine trip across, is enjoying good food and finds the English countryside very interesting.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD

SECTION TWO + SPORTS + MOVIES + WANT ADS

California

Writing from Fort Winfield Scott, California, is Irwin Hahnfeldt of Palatine.

"This is my first letter to you, though I have been in service for quite a while. My army life is about the same as all the others at home. The army has treated me swell, and outside of the longing to be at home with the people I know, I believe there is no better place for a young man than the army. Army life is not easy, but it is good for you."

"Hope to be in Palatine soon, perhaps for the holidays. I hope to see my civilian friends at that time."

His address is Sgt. Irwin F. Hahnfeldt, Hq Btry 1st Bn 6th CA, Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, Calif.

From Camp Callan, California, this week comes word from Cliff Doerrier of Palatine.

"I am training in anti-aircraft. The basic training here isn't as hard as some other outfits."

"I guess it is getting cold back there by now. The weather here is nice all year around. I hope I can be home for Christmas."

"I missed the paper for a week or so. The reason was that I was transferred to a different battalion."

His address is Pvt. Cliff Doerrier 36753701 Btry D-54 AA Trg Bn Camp Callan, San Diego, 14, Calif.

Writing from Los Angeles, California, is Bob Luckner of Mt. Prospect.

"I enjoy reading the Mt. Prospect Herald each week. As soon as I receive it I turn to 'With Uncle Sam' to see if anyone I know is out here in California near L.A."

His address is Pvt. Bob Luckner ASTU 3937 Box 556, Chapman college, Los Angeles 27, California.

Howard Graff, EM 2/C of Wheeling, celebrated his birthday and Thanksgiving by dining at the home of Dinah Shore in California. Bud had leave for the day and was chosen as one of the eight service men, 2 soldiers, 2 sailors, 2 marines and 2 coast guardsmen entertained at the radio star's home.

John Heidemann of Arlington Heights sends a card this week from San Francisco, Calif.

"Am receiving the Herald regularly. I enjoy reading it because it keeps me in touch with the other fellows from Arlington. Am stationed here for only a short time, and shall let you know my new address as soon as I know it, myself."

So. Pacific

Writing from somewhere in the south Pacific is William Mykytiuk of Wheeling.

"Was sure glad to get the Cook County Herald way out here. In fact I received two of them today, certainly enjoyed the paper. Even if it was a couple of months old. Enjoyed the 'With Uncle Sam' section the most. There's nothing like knowing where the boys are and what they are doing."

"We've been doing a little moving around. This sure is a great experience. It involves a lot of work, but sure have enjoyed it. I presume the next place we move to will be our permanent base for some time."

"The weather here sure is hot. Wish we could trade it in for some of the cold weather you're having back at the states now. We don't have any too much time for ourselves, gotta make the best use of every spare minute we have. Time sure does fly around here."

"I'm sure Tojo started something he can't finish. Everybodys looking forward to the final day."

His address is Wm. V. Mykytiuk F 3/C, Boat Pool No. 10, Navy 158, c/o Fleet Postoffice, San Francisco, Calif.

Arriving safely at his destination in the Pacific is William Schwankoff of Palatine. "Am in the best of health and anxiously awaiting my copies of the Enterprise."

His new address is Cpl. William J. Schwankoff, 36028059, APO 9026 c/o PM, San Francisco, California.

New Mexico

William J. Busse of Mt. Prospect, son of William Busse, Jr., has been promoted to Sergeant, according to Colonel J. P. Bailey Commanding Officer of the Hobbs Army Air Field.

Sgt. Busse, who is a graduate of Valparaiso University, is with Hobbs Army Air Field, Hobbs, New Mexico.

Ralph Wiehrdt is scheduled to graduate from the Warrierdier school this Saturday at Denning, New Mexico. Ralph will hold the rank of second lieutenant upon graduation.

Wants 'the latest dirt' from the boys

Wes Kurtz of Arlington Heights has started a hobby of collecting dirt from various parts of the country and world. The collection was started when his brother sent earth from four camps he had attended. These included Sheppard field, Texas, Lowry field, Colorado, Yagross, Georgia, and Tampa, Florida. Just recently he received some dirt from the Solomons, sent by Alex Angeloff of Arlington.

Wes puts this dirt in small bottles, properly labeled. He hopes to build a real collection with the aid of local servicemen. His address is Wes Kurtz, 10 S. State rd., Arlington Heights.

Alabama

Cpl. Lowell L. Hartliep, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hartliep, 108 N. Dwyer st., Arlington Heights, returned home on a furlough last week for a ten day visit with his family.

Cpl. Hartliep is stationed at Ft. McClellan, Alabama, Army Infantry Replacement Training Center. He enlisted in the Army and was sent to Ft. McClellan last March. After his basic training there he was sent on to the Infantry's Cadre school. Upon completion of his Cadre training he became a member of the regular Cadre staff.

Oklahoma

From Norman, Oklahoma, comes word of Charles Butkus of Palatine.

"Glad to see that Palatine went over the top in the recent war bond drive. With support such as that on the home front, we service men realize more than ever what we are fighting for. Keep it up."

"The work of the Palatine Enterprise in enabling the boys to keep in touch with their buddies around the world is another great service. I don't think the folks at home realize what that paper means to one in camp."

His address is Chas. Butkus S 2/C, 6A-44 Bks 46, NATTC, Norman, Oklahoma.

Louisiana

Writing from maneuvers in Louisiana is W. B. Feldten of Palatine.

"Two bad things about maneuvers. One is the night blackout driving. I drive a jeep and, at first, though it was fun, but it is now old stuff. The other is the cold weather. It seems colder than at home though I suppose it is because we are out in the open all of the time."

"We expect to leave for Texas in a few weeks, where we will train with the infantry. In these maneuvers we support the infantry."

"Will promise to answer any letters I get from Palatine at any time."

EMIL F. RICHERT

Nov. 26, 1943

Dear Eleanor:
Our Thanksgiving Day this year had a pioneer air about it, or so it seemed to me. This thought came to me when on the evening before, I heard Rob ask Jack where a particular ax might be found. Then shortly after dinner they disappeared in the darkness of the chicken house, with only a small flash light to direct them to the largest duck and chicken they could find.

It wasn't long before they returned and went immediately to the basement where two dead birds were plucked into HOT water. (This procedure greatly facilitates the job of plucking.) Fortunately for me, it is not even suggested that I help in this uninteresting task—for this, I am most grateful. There are some things I draw the line at, and cleaning any kind of fowl is one of them.

The morning of Thanksgiving Day, the Muscovy and the New Hampshire Red were stuffed with Rob's special bread and celery dressing. It is as nearly like the kind his Mother made as he can possibly get it. I had found a bunch of freshly dried sage in a little store a few days before, and that with grated onion, salt and pepper and butter made up the ingredients of what turned out to be a most delicious stuffing.

Young Rob came into the kitchen while I was preparing the mince meat pies, and he assisted in their preparation. I always use apple sauce with mince meat for it makes a lighter pie. I think pies of this sort are very apt to be heavy following a big meal. It pleased and amused me to see that tall son of ours putting around in the kitchen. It was as if he wanted to have a "finger" in the preparations, even if it was only to be a little finger.

George and Edward came along and asked for the remaining bits of pie crust. They rolled and re-rolled the pastry until it began to take on that tell-tale grey color. Then out came a cookie cutter and soon the heart-shaped pieces were ready for the oven. Edward was so proud of their achievement that I couldn't bear to hurt his feelings by not accepting the sample he offered when the pan was taken out of the oven. Later on at dinner he announced that "George and I made cookies that really can be eaten." (no doubt having in mind the summer's mud and sand pies that were "verboten.")

We didn't serve dinner until six-thirty in order to assure the presence of Dorothy and Paul. (Paul having to be at Great Lakes all day.) The boys are always so delighted when Paul is able to be with us, for it means "salty" talk for us, too, on those occasions. They ply him with myriad questions on seamanship, navigation, etc., and he obligingly answers what would not constitute a military secret. I noticed George lovingly tracing with his finger the gold bars on the sleeve of his uniform, while Edward sat on a foot stool at his knees, his upturned face intent on what Paul was telling them.

We talked of cousin Dick in far off Trinidad. How lonely his day must have been away from Ann and the children. He does not expect to be home for Christmas either; this will be the third away from his family.

Did I tell you we have a lovely photograph of Dick? It was taken after he received his third bar and the gold brand on his cap . . . called "scrambled eggs" in the best Navy talk!

Have I ever told you that when the President stopped over at Trin-

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

IN 1876 the city of Philadelphia celebrated its one-hundredth anniversary and was for one summer the scene of gaiety and excitement almost unsurpassed in its quiet conservative history. Against this background Albert E. Idell has written his popular novel titled "Centennial Summer."

This is the story of the Rogers family: the father, a railroad man, even more opinionated and difficult than the father of Clarence Day's "Life With Father"; the mother, a daughter of an Italian nobleman; the two boisterous twins, Georgina and Henry; and the two older sisters, the beautiful and petulant Zenia and Julia, the most quiet and gentle member of the family.

These, plus glamorous Aunt Zena who lives in Paris, and her handsome dashing nephew Philippe, make up the cast of characters in Mr. Idell's hilarious story. "Centennial Summer" should make an excellent movie and in fact has already been bought by Twentieth Century-Fox for production sometime next year.

Jesse Stuart, the Kentucky author whose "Taps For Private Tussie" is the December book-of-the-month, was asked recently what he intended to do with "all that money" he was going to get from the Book-of-the-Month Club. He confessed that he hoped to save it. "I've been hungry many a time," he said, "and people who have been hungry, just don't like to see money wasted." "Don't you even want to go out and buy a lot of new clothes?" his questioner insisted. He just looked embarrassed at that and his wife explained that Jesse had the reputation of being the worst dressed man in Kentucky. It takes her years to get him to buy a new suit and when she succeeds, likely as not, he just puts it aside and goes right on wearing overalls. Once when he was lecturing, he did buy a dress suit, because the lecture bureau said he had to. That was two years back, and the suit hasn't once been out of mothballs.

Nancy Wilson Ross, in her book "The Waves" gives credit to Josephus Daniels for the first infiltration of women into the ranks of the Navy. It was he who, in the critical spring of 1917, when the Navy was desperately in need of extra clerical assistance at shore stations, asked, "Is there any law that says a yeoman must be a man?" The Navy records were searched and no such law was found. Thus the way was open for the hiring of women, which Secretary Daniels at once proceeded to do.

The Last War

Just to let you know that the Shermerville ladies are doing Red Cross work. Met at Mrs. Emily Bartelme's Parlor every Tuesday afternoon. Last Tuesday the ladies finished 7 sweaters, a pair of wristlets and a pair of socks and most of them have work that they take home, which is not finished yet.

Henry Maas of East Maine, has been transferred from Camp Grant at Rockford, to Camp Logan near Houston, Texas, for further training.

CAPTURED "ZEP" IS A WONDER CRAFT

French and American officers made thorough investigation of machine — wounded even wheeled to the scene. The strayed Zeppelin L-49 that was downed by the French near Bourbonne-les-Bains, while trying to get back to its base, was 600 feet long and the envelope was 60 feet in diameter. The machinery is highly complicated and the driving motors were equipped with 12 cylinders. It carried only incendiary bombs, apparently for the purpose of self-destruction in the event of capture. All the explosives evidently had been dropped in England.

Lloyd Briggs, of Palatine, who enlisted as a wireless operator, has left Great Lakes and gone to Harvard university to complete the course.

CAN NOT ESCAPE ARMY DUTY IN FRANCE

The United States District Court at Wilmington, Delaware handed down a decision Tuesday sustaining the constitutionality of the draft law. The action was brought by Donald Stephens, of Arden, Del., and the contention raised that the government had no right to compel citizens to perform military service outside of the country. This ought to put an end to all of the talk that some of our local people are circulating that the drafted boys can not be compelled to go to France.

DIES IN IOWA

Aubrey R. Harris, 69, father of Mrs. H. E. Hallberg, of Mt. Prospect, died in a Davenport, Ia., hospital Nov. 22. He has lived there many years. He is survived by his widow, three daughters and two sons.

SUE FOR $22,000

Helen and Byron E. Bramble have sued M. T. Sanderson in Circuit court for a total of $22,000 damages for injuries in a collision of automobiles Jan. 31, in Skokie. They allege they were passengers in a car on Harlem ave at Dempster rd., when Sanderson drove his car into theirs from Dempster rd. Helen asks $20,000 damages and Byron $2,000.

Wash Face Thoroughly

Don't let a permanent wave lure you into careless face washing habits. Unless you lather right up to the hairline, you are practically inviting skin eruptions on the forehead and around the back of the neck. Tuck the curly locks under a towel or under a cap, and you won't wet the hair when you wash way up to the top of your face.

Palatine

Mrs. James Cruickshank, of Arlington Heights, spent Wednesday with Mrs. C. Vehe.

Mrs. Emma Wilson and Mrs. Sawyer spent Saturday and Sunday at the Branigan home in Wheaton.

The village board recently passed an ordinance fixing a fine for the dumping of ashes upon the streets. Some people persist in the practice. A hint ought to be sufficient.

The railway company has made their first move towards their promised improvements of their Palatine property. The mail cranes have been moved towards the south of their former location.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Seip celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Tuesday evening by entertaining about 250 friends and relatives.

The Palatine Athletic club held their annual election and banquet Saturday evening, Nov. 15. The officers elected were as follows: Wm. Williams, president; W. G. Ost, vice president; C. A. Ost, secretary; C. E. Julian, treasurer; Herman Wesemann and Wm. Dan-jensen, members of the board of directors.

WANTED — HOME FOR TWO

Appendix operation 'all in a day's work' aboard transport

Richard Adam of Arlington Heights has arrived in North Africa. The following letter is a composite of several letters written by him while enroute.

"At last the day arrived which I have been looking forward to a long time—a nice sunny day for a boat ride. Our whole outfit was excited about what lay ahead. We laid over for the night in some bay and I slept swell on deck in the fresh air. Smelling the salt water helps a lot to get a night's rest. We stood at the deck for three hours watching the beautiful sunset. We were afraid we would miss something if we went below. It's new to us guys and we are enjoying every moment of the trip.

"Another day has dawned. We get up at 8 a. m. Sleeping quarters are crowded and ventilation is poor, but when one is tired enough he can sleep regardless. Cots are strung six high. I have the second from the bottom. Some of the meals are good, others are lousy, but we eat what we can get because a full stomach is a lot better than an empty one. It takes two hours standing in line to get something to eat and just about that long to get our mess kits washed.

"We medics were quite busy all day opening supplies for use in our two by four hospital. It was quite a job uncrating the boxes. All of us medics are tired tonight, but not enough to keep us below. We like our sunsets and again we saw a pretty one.

"We guys are quite fortunate on this boat as we have a PX and can buy everything very cheap. For instance candy bars are three cents and cigarettes are forty cents a carton. Cokes are also served, though not ice cold. The PX is open every three days and we get two bars of candy per person.

"Today we had a slight change in the weather. It's raining hard and the ship is bouncing around with lots of high waves to make fellows sick. I'm just a little headed but two thirds of our gang is seasick. I am fighting hard to keep what's inside of me there, but don't know how long I can hold out. Not many guys felt like eating tonight, but I took my usual good meal. During the night we were all awakened by falling packs and mess kits. The ship was taking a beating and so were we. A lot of the fellows threw up during the night and what a mess that was.

"This morning I went to the hospital room and what a mess met my eyes. All the boxes we had piled up in one corner were scattered about the room. It was a good morning's job putting everything in order again. Only two bottles of soft soap broke so we were lucky. We have a few patients coming in for colds, sore throats, and fellows who would like treatment for seasickness. The only treatment, however, is plenty of solid food and little liquid.

"At ten p. m. a sick boy came in with pains around his middle, and after our medical officer examined him we had to get equipment ready for an appendix operation. It took one full hour to operate on this chippy water, and though it was hot, and all of us were wringing wet, I can honestly say all the suffering we did was not in vain because our boy is OK. I had to stay up the rest of the early morning putting cold towels on the boy's head every fifteen minutes. I learned a lot and the actual experience is the best teacher. Our patient is resting very nicely. We have to give him three tablespoons of water at a time.

"We had to spend most of the day cleaning all of the surgical tools, about three thousand dollars worth. We are ready for anything. We also spent a lot of time fixing up patients for minor ailments. Haven't been seasick yet, and don't think I will. I've become used to the boat and am walking about like an old hand.

"Another day and closer to land. I am enjoying the trip, mainly because of the PX here. I keep stocked up on candy, fig bars, vanilla wafers, and cigarettes. I didn't get up on deck yesterday as we medics

England

Sgt. Otto Frohne of Palatine is one of sixty men from Illinois who are in an Armored Field Artillery unit which—in its pre-invasion program in England—is demonstrating its proficiency in fire power, mobility and signal communication.

These Illinois soldiers pack the punch which is carried by the M-7, the 105-mm. howitzer propelled on a medium tank chassis. It was this powerful weapon which the British in North Africa nick-named "the Priest" because of the pulpit-like mount constructed for a 50-calibre machine-gun.

As with the men who make up a tank crew, each man in the M-7 crew is trained to take the place of any other member should the necessity arise.

From a distance of several thousand yards, these Armored Field Artillery soldiers can lay down a terrific barrage on a target they cannot even see. This is done by fire-direction information sent to them by forward observers through an elaborate radio network.

Under certain conditions of battle, the artillery is guided by information obtained by grass-hopper planes, sometimes called "elevated OP's" or elevated observation posts. Here again, radio communication is a vital aspect of the artillery's success.

Thus, radio, driving, gunnery, and use of smaller weapons all play important parts in the pre-invasion program which these soldiers are undergoing in England.

Still stationed in England is Staff Sergeant Carl Dziadula of Palatine. Carl is in an ordnance group, loading bombers for missions over Germany. He gets to London quite often, spending most of his passes in that city.

Sions over Germany. He gets to London quite often, spending most of his passes in that city.

were too busy. We have a slight drag as far as getting edibles at the PX ever since the appendix operation. Seems good not to have to stand in line, because the boys give us their places.

"I got tired of eating with our mess kits and became acquainted with the steward. I have chicken at noon and steak for supper. I have become an accomplished waiter as I have to carry meals for our patients on a tray going down several flights of stairs. So far I haven't dropped anything.

"Our boy who got the appendix removed is doing swell. It's hard to see just where the incision was. He gets up alone and sits around the deck a couple hours a day. If all of our future operations come out that good I'll be glad. We learned an awful lot in that operation which will be valuable to me in the future. I used to dislike the medics but I changed my mind. Wish I was a doctor because I enjoy helping fellows with their aches and pains.

"We expect to arrive at our destination tomorrow. I'm quite sure Africa is the place."

No. Carolina

Writing from Shaw field, Sumter, South Carolina, is Roy Bedell of Arlington Heights.

"We have been flying Sundays, holidays, nights, and using all available time in the air. Training here in single and twin engine ships is really terrific. We fly the Vultee Valiant, commonly known among the cadets as the 'Vibrator' because of its stalling characteristics, and the twin engine AT-10's.

"Our work includes Transition, Instrument Flying under the hood, precision landing stages, day and night cross country, contact and instrument, link training, formation flying, radio and beam work, acrobatics and night formation. The flying curriculum has been studied up so that we fly almost twice as much advanced instrument work here including more hours of link training and hood work. This is so that the boys will be able to take over combat ships much more readily.

"The only thing which marked the Thanksgiving day here was a huge turkey dinner at noon in between flights. I managed to attend chapel this morning where the WACs have organized a choir.

At the present time I am attempting to edit a classbook for my class of 44-C. This month is Shaw Field's second anniversary and I have quite a job on my hands. However, when 'High Pitch' goes to press I shall endeavor to send you a copy and perhaps one or two good photo shots of our program. We are printing a 50 to 54 page book just for my class.

"I certainly appreciate that copy of the Herald every week ever so much. Please direct it to my new address for the next two months. I have known no better way to travel than to join the Air Cadet Corps. We change fields every time we turn around. Thanks again for the Herald and a cheery 'Hello' to the entire gang at Paddock's."

His address is A/C Roy Bedell, Flight No. 1, Class 44-C, Shaw Field, Sumter, S. C.

Pennsylvania

Leif Maseng of Mt. Prospect writes this week from Washington, Pennsylvania.

"After spending three months in basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala., I can really appreciate going to school here in Washington, Pa. Washington is a small city of about 25,000 and is thirty miles south of Pittsburgh. It's a lot nicer than the big cities down south and best of all there aren't many soldiers here.

"Washington and Jefferson College is a small school with a peace-time enrollment of about 500 students. Now there are about 400 AST men and 80 civilian students. Besides these there are 400 army men in an army administration school located here, but they use only one building on campus and none of the instructors of the college.

"Everyone here has been treated wonderfully by the families in town. Most of us receive invitations to dinner on week-ends or to parties, etc. It sure doesn't seem like the army I knew at first.

"Even though we don't get much free time I always can squeeze in a few moments to read the Mt. Prospect Herald. I've been receiving it ever since I enlisted and have enjoyed every single issue. It's swell to be able to read about all the old gang and how they've been doing."

His address is Pvt. L. E. Maseng, B5 ASTP, Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa.

Yellow Has Good Effect
Where color discrimination is necessary, a simulation of daylight is desirable, but daylight can be overdone. There is evidence that ordinary incandescent light (yellowish) is more generally satisfactory. If one is to choose between a bluish tint and yellowish tint, the latter is psychologically superior, according to this finding. Painting of interior walls in proper shades can help in achieving the desired effect.

RAF pilot

PILOT OFFICER PETER ANDERSEN of the Royal Australian Air Force, who was a guest last week in the home of his cousin, L. B. Andersen. He expects to be in active service in England, shortly after the holidays.

Canada

PILOT OFFICER PETER COOK, a guest in the L. B. Andersen home last week, with his friend, Pilot Officer Peter Andersen, has since reported for active duty at a point of embarkation in Canada. The young officer just recently received his commission.

China

Believed to be in China is Chas. Bennett of Arlington Heights. Charles and Wally Kehe, also of Arlington, were buddies throughout several camps in this country. However, when they went overseas they separated. Wally is now in India while, according to the letter, Charles is believed to be in China.

His address is Pvt. Chas. L. Bennett, APO 627 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Missouri

Corporal Clarence Moeller of Wheeling has been home on a ten day furlough from Camp Crowder, Mo. Corporal Moeller recently completed a course of training in the signal corps. He expects to be transferred to Jefferson Barracks on his return to camp.

Pfc. Art Guenther of East Maine obtained a three-day pass over the week-end from Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis, Mo. His wife, Lorraine, visited with him at St. Louis two weeks ago.

L. O. K.

LOK is all we can say as to the whereabouts of Oliver Fisher of Palatine. The editors have no way of knowing just where Oliver is stationed.

"I would like to express my appreciation to the Legion and Auxiliary for making it possible for me to get the Palatine Enterprise every week. When you're halfway around the world that paper looks especially good."

His address is Pvt. Oliver Fisher, 36651822 APO 633 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

We would rather be right than wrong, we're stating LOK as the station of Franklin Bublitz of Arlington Heights. Some rumors say England, some say India, so take your choice.

His new address is 2nd Lt. Franklin J. Bublitz, 0-688305 APO 9101 c/o PM, New York, N. Y.

Idaho

Ens. Marjorie Mohr, N.N.C., of Wheeling, called from Farragut, Idaho, last week to say that she would soon be leaving for somewhere on the South Pacific. Ensign Mohr has been at Farragut since entering the service just a year ago. Although she was well pleased with her work there she was looking forward to being on her way.

Oscar Laurance of Wheeling is busy with his boot training at Camp Scott, Farragut, Idaho. He is not too busy to engage in athletics, and has been going out for football. Through the courtesy of a superior officer he had an opportunity to visit with Ens. Marjorie Mohr, shortly before she left the station.

Tennessee

Writing from the Kennedy general hospital, Memphis, Tennessee, is George Schwankoff of Palatine.

"Keep that Enterprise coming. I look forward to it each week and read it from cover to cover." "Had a nice Thanksgiving dinner yesterday with turkey and all the trimmings. There were many extras such as cigars, cigarettes, nuts and candy, made possible by the Red Cross. This has been my second Thanksgiving in the hospital and I hope I don't have to spend another here. Most of the fellows here are from overseas and I feel sort of out of place."

His address is Cpl. George Schwankoff, Kennedy Gen. Hosp., Memphis 15, Tenn., Ward 9-A.

Vermont

Pvt. Ernest Arthur Mueller, 22 N. Wille st., Mt. Prospect, has arrived at Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont, for course of instruction lasting approximately five months prior to his appointment as an Aviation Cadet in the Army Air Forces Flying Training Command. During this period he will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a navigator, pilot or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.

Florida

Corporal Lawrence Beck of Wheeling has been at home on a 15-day furlough from Avon Park, Florida. Corp. Beck was hospitalized for several months this summer, following a serious operation, but apparently is fully recovered.

Alpagora
The Coat with the double-dense fabric
Alpagora coats are tailored of a special fabric... a fabric that has twice as many wool fibres on its surface as the average. This construction—textile scientists call it "Double Dense"—makes the cloth deep, soft, luxurious, and at the same time, unusually long-wearing. That's why Alpagora is such a long-odds favorite with our customers. That's why we recommend it so highly to you.
